Dear Ash,

This is to confirm that the International Institute of Business & Information Technology (IIBIT) in association with Federation University Australia has an articulation and pathway agreement with Salford College.

This articulation and pathway agreement will give direct entry to students that complete the Advanced Diploma and Diploma of Hospitality, Diploma and Advanced Diploma of Management and Diploma and Advanced Diploma of Business. This entry will also depend on the students meeting any other entry and Stream Line Visa (SVP) requirements the University may set for the Bachelor of Business and Bachelor of Management programs. These entry requirements are set each year for these programs and can be found on our website, www.itpeg.edu.au

The credit structure –

Programs	Federation University	Credit
Diploma of Management (BSB51107)	Bachelor of Business Bachelor of Management	8 courses (1 year)
Advanced Diploma of Management (BSB60407)	Bachelor of Business Bachelor of Management	8 courses (1 year)
Diploma of Business (BSB50207)	Bachelor of Business Bachelor of Management	8 courses (1 year)
Advanced Diploma of Business (BSB60207)	Bachelor of Business Bachelor of Management	8 courses (1 year)
Diploma of Hospitality (SIT50312)	Bachelor of Business Bachelor of Management	4 courses (0.5 years)
Advanced Diploma of Hospitality (SIT60312)	Bachelor of Business Bachelor of Management	8 courses (1 year)

Please note that if students complete both the diploma and advanced diploma a 12 course credit will apply which is equivalent to 1.5 years of program time.

The expiry of this agreement is December 2015 when it will be revised with the introduction of new bachelor programs.

Your college can now promote this articulation and pathway agreement.

Yours sincerely,

 Angelo Mele
